

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 27, 1882.

TERMS:—The EVENING BULLETIN is published daily, and served free of postage at 6 cents per week; 25 cents per month; 75 cents per three months; $1.50 per six months, and $3 per year, payable in advance.

THE EVENING BULLETIN HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION IN THIS CITY, CHESTER AND ABERDEEN, OHIO, THAN ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN MAYSVILLE.

THERE are thirty-eight cases of small-pox under treatment at Newport.

ANOTHER and more serious rebellion than the last, is said to have broken out in Egypt, and the Kedive will have his hands full to suppress it.

It remains to be seen how many worshippers of the brazen-pot-lid are to be found in this district among the Garfield Republicans. Are any considerable number of them ready to be branded with the legend "306."

It will cost three cents for one of the new postal money orders for a sum less than $5 and the service is so extended as to raise the limit of orders from $50 to $100. Persons will not be required to fill out a blank but will receive an order payable to the bearer at any money office.

ARE the friends of the late President Garfield, in this district, going to swallow Capt. Culbertson, the Stalwart, with his brass pot-lid and all as the "independent" New Republican has done? Has the "party lash" been applied vigorously enough to make them accept this representative of the element that achieved power through the act of Guiteau, the assassin?

THERE is a revolt in this section against bossism.—New Republican.

It is not becoming to the intellectual young writer for the "Independent" New Republican to talk about bossism. A man who has bent the pregnant hinges of the knee before the brass pot-lid of Capt. Culbertson, at the crack of the Stalwart whip, ought not refer to such a thing. It would be far better for his consistency if he would confine himself to the building up of that "New Republican party" so loudly heralded in the declaration of principles made when he ascended the tripod several months ago.

Is This True?

Is it true that Capt. W. W. Culbertson, the Republican candidate for congress, while at Carlisle recently, asked a Republican acquaintance if one thousand dollars would be a sufficient amount of money to be expended there in the interest of his race? Is it true that Capt. Culbertson desires to buy the people of Nicholas county as though they were so many cattle? If such is his desire, we feel perfectly safe in telling him that the Republican National Committee cannot place at his disposal a sum of money great enough to enable him to accomplish any such corrupt purpose.

THE Court of Appeals has just rendered a decision that will be of interest to judges and juries concerning a verdict upon a third conviction for grand larceny. Some time ago, it will be remembered, the court decided that a third conviction for the same offense, according to the statutes, fixed the punishment at a life-term in the penitentiary. In a number of instances under this decision prisoners have been sentenced for life upon hearsay evidence or evidence obtained from the prisoners themselves, that they had been previously convicted for the same crime. The court now, on the point being raised, holds that the record evidence of the previous convictions must be had before a life-verdict can be rendered.

THE attention of the young editor of the New Republican is called to the following sensible article taken from the Ashland, (Ky.) Express, and every word of which meets with the approval of the BULLETIN: "Yes, with all your boasting of the blessings your protective tariff brings to the poor man, you cannot wipe out from the memories of hundreds and thousands of honest laborers who, within the past eight years in order to obtain work to keep themselves, their wives and children from starving had to tramp it all over the country weary and hungry; absolutely begging victuals or a night's lodging, which was often refused them upon the pretext that they were nothing but worthless tramps; and this too while your present so-called protective tariff was in full operation. These poor men have not forgotten the many heart burnings they suffered and the bitter tears they shed, while far from home, willing to work at anything and almost at any price to keep soul and body together, yet unable to get it, while at that time in bitter mockery of their destitution and distress, Republican newspapers and party leaders never ceased to pour into their ears the great blessing they were enjoying under this so-called Republican protective tariff which proved to be to so many thousand of honest workmen nothing but a cheat, a delusion and a snare. Your protective tariff affords no protection to the poor man. The Lord of the earth has of late years been good to our people in giving us abundant crops and a foreign market for our breadstuffs; and there is where the secret of our prosperity lies."

THE Kentucky Democrat says: We understand that the Stalwart and Government officials, at Cincinnati, contributed a handsome sum towards the buying of Capt. Culbertson's election to congress. We wonder if Capt. Culbertson impressed upon his Cincinnati friends the idea that the Democrats of this and adjoining counties could be bought like hogs and sheep in the market.

NEAL AND CRAFT.

The Governor Will Send a Battalion of Infantry and a Section of Artillery to Protect Them During Their Trial.

Special to the Courier-Journal.

FRANKFORT, Oct. 25.—War is lowering upon the reported organized mob of Eastern Kentucky. Reports were received tonight that loud threats were made against the prisoners, Neal and Craft, who, the mob says, shall be hung whether the soldiers become their escort or not. Simultaneously with this report came Judge Brown's letter requesting Gov. Blackburn to send the State Guards. The Judge says he is satisfied that harm will befall the prisoners unless the Governor complies with his request. Thereupon orders were made out for the following Companies, with instructions to rendezvous at Lexington next Sunday and proceed to Catlettsburg with Neal and Craft next Monday: The McCreary Guards, Capt. J. Lampton Price; Nuckols Guards, Capt. Jos. Rodman, of this city; Blackburn Guards, of Midway; Lexington Guards, of Lexington; Emmet Rifles, of Maysville, a section of the Light Artillery, from Louisville, and possibly a company of the Louisville Legion. It is the intention to muster between 200 and 250 men together with the artillerists, all of whom will be under the command of Maj. Allen, of Lexington. Gov. Blackburn telegraphed to Maj. Castleman, of Louisville, to-night to get his artillerists in readiness, and that he would be down on the early train to-morrow morning to hold a conference on the threatened prospect. A telegram was also sent to Judge Brown, of Catlettsburg, telling him of the intention to send the prisoners up next Monday, instead of next Friday—the day set for the trial—the reason being that a night attack on the train is apprehended, to avoid which a special train will be engaged for Monday morning, and a sharp look-out kept all the way up. The Governor says the prisoners must and shall have a fair trial, if it requires the whole force of the State Guard.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain it effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

From Rev. P. N. GRANGER.

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District. ST. ALBANS, VT., Jan., 20, 1880. DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with 'Kendall's Spavin Cure' has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by a spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell.

(STROUGHTON, MASS., March 16, 1880. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed two bone spavins with 'Kendall's Spavin Cure,' one very large one, don't know how long the spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off and two for the small one. I have used ten bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me it will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach a every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargement, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

Send address for illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. ALL DRUGGISTS have it or can get it for you or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO. Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. 127u.
